ANNOUNCEMENTS

Don't forget that these announcements can also be found on the church website, OldDurham.org. You can view them in the calendar (look under "About Us" in the upper left) or view the service bulletin via the "Bulletin Announcements" button.

Adult Forum: Please join us at 9:15am in the Parish Hall on Sunday mornings for coffee, learning, and thought-provoking discussion.

Joe's Place Food Pantry distributions are on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month from 4:30 to 6pm in the Parish Hall. The next distributions are July 25th and August 8th. Volunteers are always welcome to sort and distribute food to our neighbors.

Healing Service on July 28. At next week's celebration of the Holy Eucharist we will offer the laying on of hands and anointing with prayers for healing. These services are held approximately 3 times per year.

Festival 2019: The next planning meeting for this year's Durham Festival will be on Monday July 22nd at 5 PM.

Vestry meets on July 24th at 7pm in the Parish Hall.

Stewardship Program planning workshop. Needed: interested volunteers to attend a workshop at St Andrew's Leonardtown on Saturday, August 3rd from 9:30am to 11:30am. This year the diocese has created an Annual Giving campaign based on the themes of the Becoming Good Soil strategic planning process. At this workshop members of the Financial Resources Committee will lead participants through tailoring those materials specifically to each church in attendance. Participants will walk away with a campaign timeline, congregational ask letters, pledge cards, ideas for kick-off events, a strategy for following up on tardy pledges and the reassurance that if they still have questions, they know who to contact for help. Speak to Catharine+ if you are interested in being part of the group.

Daughters of the King and Men's Group will meet on August 5th.

The 172nd Annual Durham Church Dinner and Festival will be held on Saturday August 10th Come and enjoy delicious food, visit the church, play some games, shop at the Fancy Table & Bake Sale, reconnect with old friends ...

Becoming Good Soil feedback: If you participated in the Southern Maryland Discovery Day (or just filled out the questionnaire) at the end of April, you are encouraged to review the draft of the diocese's resulting strategic plan and offer feedback at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/parishleadersfeedback>

The Indian Head 100 (aka, 'The Bike Ride') is coming up on Labor Day (Sept. 2). This event has become one of the biggest on our annual parish calendar. We are able to meet and serve more people on this day (nearly 1000) than probably any other day of the year, and we get paid to do it! You want to be part of this. Many hands make light work: please sign up in the back of the church, and contact Patrice by email with any questions about volunteering.

Did you notice? The eucharistic prayer we are using during Ordinary Time speaks about the blood of the new covenant being poured out for the forgiveness of "all," not of "many," as most of our other eucharistic prayers put it. Here are some notes from the Episcopal Church's Standing Committee on Liturgy and Music:

The use of "all" ("My Blood...poured out for you and for all") in the institution narrative emphasizes that forgiveness of sins is made available to all through Christ's sacrifice. While the Greek word is literally translated "many," biblical scholars have pointed out that in the context of the passage it means that the sacrifice is made not just for a large number of persons, but for all humanity. (A similar use of "many" occurs in Matthew 20:28, where it is written that Jesus would give his life as "a ransom for many." 1 Timothy 2:6, looking back on the event, says he gave himself as a "ransom for all.") New eucharistic prayers in both the Roman Catholic Church and the Lutheran Church use "all" rather than "many."
